

All rise, as the Torah is returned to the ark:

And when it rested he would say, “Return, O ETERNAL, to the myriad thousands of Israel. Arise, O MIGHTY ONE, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength! Let your priests be clothed in righteousness and your devout ones will sing joyfully. For the sake of David, your servant, turn not away the face of your Messiah. For I have given you good counsel--do not forsake my Torah.”

It is a tree of life for those who grasp hold of it, and its supporters are praiseworthy. Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. Turn us back to you, O LORD, and we shall return. Renew our lives as in days of old.
